

BUCKVENTURES

PRO-STAFF APPLICATION

We would like to introduce you to a new opportunity to become a part of our Pro-Staff. We have assembled one of the most comprehensive and educational television shows in the hunting industry. Our "tell all, no secrets" approach to our show, along with our belief in 100% fair chase, with all wild animals, has led to our success. We have several new features and products for the 2011 season that will enable us to instruct our viewers in consistently harvesting big bucks year after year. We invite you to join us so that your experience can add to our desire to better ourselves, and expand our knowledge base.

HOW IS THIS ACCOMPLISHED?

We are searching for the best of the best, and we want to find out if you have what it takes to harvest big, mature whitetail on a consistent basis. Can you capture everything on video, and explain how you did it?

OUR PROGRAM

We will go through each team entry to select one to two different teams to become Pro-Staff. You must own your own camera, and be able to compile high quality footage. The winning teams will be invited to our annual meeting to be introduced to the BVO Family. Upon announcement of your win, you will receive sponsorship products, and have opportunities to hunt across the Midwest. This will allow you to express yourself and your hunting style for our evaluation. This opportunity is ONLY open to teams.

THE COST

Our application fee is $200.00 per team. ($100.00 per person) The cost will go toward processing and review expenses. Funds from this fee are also applied to your expenses for the annual meeting. Annual meeting includes: Free lodging and meals for three days. (Travel expenses paid by applicants.)

HOW DO YOU APPLY?

All applicants must apply as a hunter/cameraman team. Applications need to be completed in their entirety in legible ink. Please include a photo of your team, and harvests you have on film, and hero shots you would like us to see. Any video footage enclosed is appreciated, but is not a requirement. All applicants agree that the following application is for BuckVentures Outdoors Pro-Staff ONLY. Winners must be willing to complete any tax forms we deem necessary.
